Albany is home to pristine beaches, turquoise waters and the most beautiful bays in Australia.

THE AREA

Situated in Princess Royal Harbour, part of King George Sound, these waters are steeped in history. Come aboard and experience Albany from the sea. Imagine what it would have been like when the first explorers pulled into the harbour as early as 1627 or when the first ANZAC troops departed Albany for WWI in 1914. Cast yourself back in time to the days of the old whaling ships and see the Historic Whaling Station in Frenchman Bay and the shipwreck of the Cheynes II, a 440 ton steam whale chaser.

THE BOAT

Our boat is the "Young Salty Dog", a twin hull catamaran and an ex Sea Rescue vessel that is safe and stable. Holding up to 12 passengers, Captain Mark will give you a personalised tour of the harbour and King George Sound.

100%

SATISFACTION GUARANTEE

If the safari was not to your satisfaction or while the whales are in town you did not see a whale, you are invited back as our guest free of charge for another safari.

WINTER WHALE SAFARIS

MAY - OCTOBER

From around May to October, Humpback, Southern Right and occasionally rare Blue Whales can be seen in Albany's waters where they frolic, mate and calve. Dolphins and seals can be seen all year round.

You'll cruise through the Ataturk Channel and have a great view of Point King Lighthouse, Point Possession and the ANZAC Centre on Mount Clarence from the sea. Seeing whales is our priority on this safari, so we go where they go.

We visit the beautiful turquoise waters of Mistaken Island, the natural beauty of Gull Rock and Seal Island and view the Historic Whaling Station from Frenchman Bay. We cruise past Camp Quarunup, established in 1875 as a quarantine station with a powder magazine built on Geake Island. A photographers favourite, we drive around an old shipwrecked Whale Chaser, the Cheynes II which broke its moorings and ran aground.

Just got back from our trip with Captain Mark from King George Sound Safaris and what a fantastic morning. We saw whales (3) playing together in the bay. 3 pods of dolphins and seals laying on the rocks.

Captain Mark was fantastic with our 11 year old son. Talking with everyone and very entertaining. Would go again in a heartbeat. Thank you for a brilliant morning out in Albany.

Summer Sea Safaris

APRIL

2 HOUR
SAFARIS

Smell the sea in the air and get the wind in your hair as we cruise around Princess Royal Harbour and King George Sound. We'll navigate through the Ataturk Channel, past Point King Lighthouse and Point Possession. You'll see the ANZAC Centre on Mount Clarence from the sea. Out in the King George Sound you'll gaze in awe at the beautiful turquoise waters of Mistaken Island.

The amazing south coast is renowned for its pristine white beaches and we cruise past Brambles, Whalers Cove/Fisheries (a local nudist beach), Goode and Middleton Beach in Frenchman Bay. We also see Camp Quarantup, built in 1875 as a quarantine station with a powder magazine built on Geake Island.

Be reminded of whaling days gone by with a visit to an old shipwrecked Whale Chaser, the Cheynes II which broke its moorings and ran aground. It can be seen from the shores of Albany but it's incredible to view up close and a photographers favourite.

We had an amazing time with Captain Mark on the Young Salty Dog. The water was like glass. It was so serene! Mark was great with the kids, letting them wear his captains hat and have a drive. We recommend their Safari Alert system. Just scan the code on the brochure. We saved $50! Thank you again Mark, we'll be back to see the whales.

We had a group of 5 go out for a cruise with Mark to enjoy an Albany sunset. Water was a little choppy but Mark and the Young Salty Dog cut through it nicely before anchoring next to an island sheltered from the breeze. It was magical sitting in the crystal waters capturing the last hour of sunshine while enjoying a feed from the on-board BBQ with a few drinks. On our way back we had a look at an old semi submerged whale chaser in the harbour while catching the last of the sun to the west, and the city lights coming on to the east. Mark will tailor a cruise to suit which was great for us. He was a fantastic host who couldn't do enough for us and was a good laugh as well. Overall we all had a fantastic experience and would not hesitate to do it again, or recommend to others.

Captain Mark is AMAZING with young kids - absolutely hilarious! My son chose to go for a cruise with a few close friends instead of having a birthday party, very wise decision, everybody loved it! We spent an awesome morning on the Young Salty Dog, great company, fantastic scenery and cake!....what more could you ask for? Thanks KGSS
